

PURPOSE OF THE JOB

All positions in the Kawartha Pine Ridge District School Board support the vision of the Board: to excel in learning, to succeed in life and to enrich our communities.

The purpose of the Child & Youth Worker (CYW) position is to provide instructional support in academic, social, physical, emotional and behavioural programs for students ment.

The Child & Youth Worker, as part of the student support team works collaboratively to assist in the delivery, development and implementation of social, emotional and behavioural programs to support the student, family and school personnel.

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES

Program Support

- x Provides program support by assisting teachers with the delivery of academic and social/life skills programs for both individual and groups of students by implementing effective learning support strategies and using a variety of instructional support methods, techniques and learning aids: includes scribing, correcting, prompting, reading, keeping student on task, adapting language for re-delivery, reinforcing concepts, lessons and skills, providing information to teachers to assist in creation of student IEP, support students in the use of assistive technology, delivery of appropriate life skills and routine activities of daily living and the promotion of independence, self-advocacy and self-reliance.
- x Guides, prepares and assists students completing work (co-op) placements, as required.

Personal Care

- x Provides support and physical assistance to meet the established physical needs of students including toileting, diapering, changing clothes and/or teaching personal hygiene, toilet training, washroom routines, hand over hand feeding, food preparation, modified feeding tools, modeling and monitoring for choking as appropriate, physical transfer and positioning of student with or without equipment.
- x Implementing general maintenance exercises prescribed by a registered physiotherapist or occupational therapist.

